Weekly Literacy Tasks (aim to do 1 per day)

Hidden Jewels

Put three bowls over different amounts of jewels.

Quickly lift and replace the bowl and challenge your child to say how many there are.

Swap the bowls around rapidly for a minute. When you stop, can your child point to the correct bowl with the jewels under?

Voting Station

Choose a variety of reading books for story time throughout the day. Ask your child to vote which story they would like to listen to.

Add extra votes and ask your child to compare the votes and discuss the difference between them.

The doorbell rang!

Listen to this story by Pat Hutchins.

Act out the story by creating salt dough cookies and sharing them between different numbers of people.

Here are a few more ideas linked to the story you could explore too!

Double TROUBLE!

Tell a story about someone have trouble looking after 2 dogs. Then they get two more- double the trouble!

What if they had 3 dogs to start with? How many would be double the trouble?

Explore what you have to do when doubling with dots, dominoes or anything handy around the house.

Ten green bottles
