

Learning Projects- Half Term Year 1

SCIENCE

Activity 1

Giant Bubbles

Have you ever blown your own bubbles? Now is the chance to be able to create your own giant bubbles, just click on the link below to find out what you will need and step by step instructions!

Giant Bubbles

Activity 2

Whacky Whistle

Fancy making a whacky whistle? It's really simple and very effective! Follow this link below to find out what you need and make your whistle today!

Whacky Whistle

Activity 3

Snow Powder

Ever wanted to make your own snow powder? Even though the sun is shining there's always time to make some snow powder! Click the link below to find out how!

Snow Powder

Activity 4

Slime Time

It's time to make your own slime! Below is a quick link to how to make slime with very few pieces of equipment! Let's get going with slime time!

Slime Time

Activity 5

Fairy Jar

Here is a lovely activity that involves making your very own fairy jar! Watch the video below and with help from your parent/carer make you own fairy jar to light up your bedroom!

Fairy Jar

What's the Science behind it?

How big can you make your own bubbles? Share them via seesaw/twitter!

What's the Science behind it?

What sound does your whistle make? Can you record yourself blowing your whistle?

What's the Science behind it?

What does your snow powder feel like?

What's the Science behind it?

Can you record yourself making the dancing popcorn explaining the Science too!

What's the Science behind it?

What could you put inside your fairy jar? Be creative!

SCIENCE IS LIKE MAGIC, BUT REAL!