Character profile

Using evidence from the text what type of personality does the author portray Michael's dad to have?

3 marks

Like last week we are going to be recapping important mathematical methods. It's time to recap those basic skills for addition, subtraction, multiplication and division, practise those times tables and explore some reasoning and problem solving questions by applying your understanding.

Weekly Writing Tasks (Aim to do 1 per day)

Times Tables

It's time to practise those times tables! You should have your TTRS log in and be able to access TTRS either on the app or through an internet browser.

Can you complete the soundcheck and gain full marks? How close can you get to 25?

Screenshot your sound check scores over the week and post them on seesaw/twitter!

Click on the images below to access interactive maths material on all topics covered over the year.

STORY STARTER

'I owe it to my family and to my friends, all of whom I have deceived for so long, to tell the truth about my long disappearance, about how I lived to come back from the dead.'

The narrative opens with this statement, without reading the book can you create a narrative which explains the adventures, experiences and difficulties Michael experienced?

Michael's dad buys a boat for his family, using evidence from the text and your own opinions what are the pros and cons of living on a boat?

Would you live on one if you had the choice? Why?

IMESSAGE

Using the imessage format can you create a text between Michael and his friend Eddie Dodds explaining how his life had changed?
